Re the attached...Public Affairs contacted Mr. Young's office this morning and there is still some uncertainty whether or not Mr. Young will also attend today's briefing so you may want to stop by the DCI Conference Room at 12:45 p.m. today, just in case, or to just say hello to Mr. Young's aide.

I will advise you when and if we get word Mr. Young will be here also.

LEGISLATIVE LIAISON

84-2182

25 May 1984

MEMORANDUM FOR: Deputy Director of Central Intelligence

FROM: George V. Lauder
Director, Public Affairs Office

SUBJECT: Your Meeting with Congressman C. W. Young (R., FL)
Constituents

1. Action Required: None. Background information only.

2. Background:

a. You are scheduled to address approximately 18 Chamber of Commerce members from St. Petersburg and one staff member from Congressman C. W. Bill Young's (R., FL) office in the ~~DCI Conference Room~~ at ~~1:00 p.m. Tuesday, 29 May~~. A/DDI Dick Kerr will follow you. During the week Congressman Young's constituents will also be briefed by representatives from the Department of Treasury, ACTION, the Supreme Court, the Marine Corp, the National Security Council, the Civil Aeronautics Board, the Congressional Budget Office, and the Ambassador from Saudi Arabia.

b. As you indicated, you will give a 15-20 minute talk on "The World Trouble Spots," allowing for questions and answers within this time frame. You can then turn the group over to Dick Kerr at about 1:20 p.m., and you need not remain. Mr. Kerr will speak on Central America and the Middle East. The briefing is unclassified.

c. This Chamber of Commerce group is composed of professional people and financial leaders from St. Petersburg. See attached list. No media will attend. They are all members of the Leadership Program in St. Petersburg. A program designed to train community members to take over leadership roles. The Congressman meets with them in Florida as part of the curriculum. Visiting Washington gives them the opportunity to meet with key people and an exposure to what is happening at the Federal level.

SUBJECT: Your Meeting with Congressman C. W. Young (R., FL)
Constituents

d. After the members of the St. Petersburg Chamber of Commerce have arrived, coffee and iced tea will be served from 12:45 - 1:00 p.m. in the DCI Conference room. I will introduce you at 1:00 p.m. The meeting will end at approximately 2:30 p.m. Members of the Public Affairs staff will be present throughout the session.

e. We do not plan to tape the session.
